Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Jeb Dunnuck, avril 2016) : 90/100. Deeper and richer, with more minerality, structure and concentration, the 2013 Languedoc Montpeyroux la Boda (45% Mourvèdre, 45% Syrah and the rest Carignan) shows solid elegance and medium to full-bodied richness on the palate, with building tannin that comes through with time in the glass. From a cooler, higher elevation site, completely destemmed and aged 24-26 months in demi-muids, it has outstanding notes of dark fruits, violets, spring flowers and wet rocks. It will be at its best from 2017-2025.
