Domaine Jean-Paul et Benoit Droin Chablis Grand Cru Vaudésir 2015 :

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Neil Martin, août 2017) : 93-95/100. The 2016 Chablis Grand Cru Vaudesir, matured in 35% used barrel, has a very composed bouquet with scents of yellow plum, citrus peel, flint and smoke that seem to gain intensity in the glass. This is a very "involving" bouquet that you just want to keep inhaling. The palate is taut on the entry, sporting a fine line of acidity. It is slightly resinous in style with notes of dried honey, white pepper, fennel and a powerful, spicy finish that lingers long in the mouth. There is a lot going on in this multifaceted Vaudésir, a Chablis that is riveting even at this early juncture. Drink date 2020-2038.
