Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (William Kelley, août 2019) : 94/100. The 2017 Pouilly-Fuissé Les Birbettes has turned out very well, revealing a pretty bouquet of confit citrus, frangipane and smoke that are framed by a discreet touch of new oak. On the palate, it's full-bodied, enveloping and textural, with broad shoulders and a powerful, sun-kissed profile but with a livelier, less extreme personality than the 2015 rendition. This cuvée is produced from parcels of very old vines, planted in the 1920s and in 1945. Drink date 2020-2035.
