Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Jeb Dunnuck, déc. 2015) : The current release (this estate always releases their top two Condrieu the following year), the 2013 Condrieu les Chaillées de l'Enfer is as textbook as it gets, with terrific minerality in its white peach, sautéed tangerine, apricot and white flowers-scented bouquet. Fresh, medium to full-bodied, balanced and with fabulous purity, if I had to pick one Condrieu to pour for someone who wanted to taste a classic wine from the appellation, this would be it. It will drink nicely for 3-4 years.
